EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Mrs. Cone Johnson Hostess at Buffet Luncheon Given in Honor of Mrs. Bryan.

Marriage of Miss Jones and Lieut. Hopkins at Warsaw Last Night. Bridge Parties—Personals.

Mrs. William Jennings Bryan was the guest of honor at a beautiful buffet luncheon given today by Mrs. Cone Johnson at her residence on 10th street. The house was prettily decorated with pink and white spring flowers. Small tables, each ornamented with a basket filled with pink anemones and a silver candelabra, were placed around in the dining room.

The guests present included: Mrs.

Capt. and Mrs. R. C. Ransdell, Mr. and Mrs. Quinter, Mr. John Barrett, Dr. and Mrs. James H. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McClintock, Mr. Ford Thompson and Dr. and Mrs. Breckinridge Bayne.

A beautiful wedding took place last night at 8 o'clock at Emmanuel P. E. Church, when Miss Annie Margaret Hingley and Dr. Dennis John Murphy were married in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends. Rev. W. G. Davenport, assisted by Rev. Dr. Roome, performed the ceremony, and the church was elaborately decorated with white peonies, roses and palms.

The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. Nathaniel R. Hornish, wore an exquisite gown of white satin veiled in tulle and trimmed with champagne lace. Her long court train was of satin, and she wore a tulle veil caught with a spray of lilies of the valley. She carried a shower of lilies of the valley. Mrs. Charles F. Roberts, the matron of honor, wore a gown of pink crepe meteor with pearl trimming and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Anna Price, Miss Marian Butler and Miss Carolyn Secret were the bridesmaids. They wore gowns of green tulle, trimmed with white chiffon and champagne lace. Their bouquets were cream-colored roses.

Miss Ruth Sartorius and Miss Francis Palmer Roberts were the ring-bearers, the latter wearing a white satin page suit and Miss Sartorius wearing white lace and pink and green ribbons. Mr. Edward Murphy was best man.

Kelley, Mrs. Beverly Randolph Mason and Mrs. Dulles.

An interesting wedding took place last night at Warsaw, Va., when Miss Anne Seymour Jones, daughter of Representative and Mrs. William Atkinson Jones, became the bride of Lieut. S. Roland Hopkins, U. S. A. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock at St. John's Church, Rt. Rev. Beverly Tucker, bishop coadjutor of Virginia, officiating, assisted by Rev. Mr. Litsinger.

A beautiful decoration of white roses, Asplenium lilies and palms was in place in the church, and a musical program was rendered during the seating of the guests by the ushers—Maj. Willard D. Newbill, U. S. A.; Lieut. Harry Pfeil, Capt. Morris E. Locke, U. S. A.; Lieut. Whiteside, Lieut. Alexander Jones, U. S. A., and Lieut. John Eager, U. S. A.

The lovely young bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory-tinted duchess satin. The high-waisted bodice had a wide girdle of the satin, and the yoke and sleeves were of tulle, embroidered in pearls. The short, full skirt had a deep founce of rose point lace, the panels at the sides being embroidered in pearls. Her court train fell from the shoulders, where it was held with a cluster of orange blossoms. She wore a veil of Brussels lace and tulle, caught in cap fashion with a coronet of orange blossoms. A bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley was carried.

Miss Mary Madeline Jones of Brooklyn, N. Y., the maid of honor, wore yellow satin veiled in yellow tulle, with touches of bronze and a large yellow tulle hat. Her bouquet was of orchids and yellow roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Helen McCumber, Miss Antoinette Ray, Miss Frances Edinger and Miss Dorothy Taylor, all of this city, and Miss Mary Archer and Miss Hattie Mitchell of Virginia, wore picturesque gowns of lilac tulle over yellow tulle, with yellow tulle hats trimmed with lilacs. They carried large bouquets of yellow roses. Masters J. W. Chinn, Jr., and Alexander Mallory, Jr., little cousins of the bride, in colonial costumes of lilac and yellow satin and powdered wigs, were pages. Mr. William A. Jones, Jr., brother of the bride, was best man. A large reception followed at the home of Representative and Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Jones received in a gown of white satin trimmed with point lace and tulle. Lieut. and Mrs. Hopkins left last night for a northern trip, after which they will be at home at Fort Myer, where the former is stationed.

of blue gabardine with hat to match. They will reside at 1340 Maple View place on their return.

Countess Gizevka and Prince Hohenlohe, who were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rowland at Rock Rose, Radnor, Pa., have returned to Washington.

Miss Wallis Warfield is spending a few days with Maj. Gen. and Mrs. George Barnett.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Danenhower announce the marriage of their daughter Adelaide and Mr. Harry Augustus Grant yesterday at the German Lutheran Church at 2 p.m.

Only the two families witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. Richard Schmidt. Mr. and Mrs. Grant left immediately after for a northern trip. They will be at home after July 15 at 1918 I street.

Mrs. J. W. MacMurray and Miss MacMurray will leave today for the Adirondacks, where they will spend some time.

The Italian ambassador and Countess di Celere, accompanied by all the members of the embassy staff, with the exception of Mr. Cecato, left yesterday for Beverly Farms, Mass., where they will spend the summer.

St. Martin's Church was the scene of a quiet wedding Tuesday, when Miss Marie Veronica Smith became the bride of Mr. John Joseph Ragan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Maurice B. Alexander, assisted by Father Eugene Hannan, in the presence of relatives and friends. The bride wore a becoming gown of white net and lace over tulle, with a white picture hat, and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Her going-away gown was of sand-colored gabardine and a black hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Ragan, who later left for a northern trip, will return to the city about July 1.

Miss Irene Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Wright, is in Atlantic City, visiting Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Adler. On her return she will join her parents for the summer at their country place, Yatton, Round Hill, Va.

Mrs. Lanier Park McLachlen is entertaining at bridge this afternoon in honor of her house guest, Miss Rosa K. Gahn of New Orleans, La.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Geary Johnson, who have taken a cottage at Spring Lake, N. J., for the summer, left the city today.

Mrs. Samuel P. Picklen and Miss

Devlette C. Picklen have gone to West Point, N. Y., to attend the finals at the Military Academy.

Miss Sue A. Koehler and Mr. William Rowland Starr were quietly married at the bride's home in Baltimore, May 28. They will make their future home in Washington.

Miss Mabel Constance Davis, daughter of Mr. William W. Davis, and Mr. J. W. Roberts, son of Rev. John Dwight Roberts, were married very quietly yesterday by Rev. G. G. Johnson, at the parsonage of the Emmanuel Baptist Church, in the presence of the families of the bride and bridegroom. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left for their wedding trip. They will be at home to their friends at the Ohio after July 15.

Miss Bertha Mae Embrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Embrey, and Mr. A. Turner Cox, son of Mrs. T. A. Hill, were married in the Maryland Avenue Baptist Church last evening in the presence of a large gathering.

The church was elaborately decorated with ferns, palms, roses and peonies, with standards flanked with roses and ferns marking the pews. The altar was banked with ferns and palms, and the vases were filled with peonies.

The ushers, who preceded the bridal procession, were Messrs. R. E. Beale, church chorister; T. Carlisle Crump, church organist; J. W. Reynolds, brother-in-law of the groom, and J. Frank Kelly.

A beautiful musical program was rendered, during the seating of the guests, by Mrs. R. H. Hall at the organ and Mr. Russell Burroughs, soloist. Mrs. Hall likewise played the wedding march and all through the service. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harry J. Goodwin, pastor of the church.

The lovely young bride, who was escorted to the altar and later given away by her father, wore a beautiful gown of white charmeuse trimmed with rose point lace. The bodice was surplice effect with yoke and sleeves of tulle and lace, and the flaring skirt was finished at the bottom with coral lace. Her court train was edged with lace, and she wore a tulle veil trimmed with lace and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The only jewelry worn by the bride was a diamond and ruby lavalier, the gift of the groom.

The bridesmaid was Miss Lula Usil-
